

Human kidneys partially grown in pigs offer transplant hope conduct (v.) – to organize and perform a particular activity:

How you choose to conduct your private life is your own business!

get around (ph. v) – to find a way of dealing with or avoiding a problem:

The committee is looking for ways to get around the funding problem.

stem cell (n.) – a cell, especially one taken from a person or animal in a very early stage of development, that can develop into any other type of cell integrate (v.) – to combine two or more things into one:

We need to develop an online shopping application and integrate it into our website.

expression – (in genetics) the appearance in a phenotype of a characteristic or effect attributed to a particular gene.

pro- (prefix) – supporting or approving of something pro-democracy demonstrations sow (n.) – an adult female pig tract – a system of tubes and organs in the body that are connected and have a particular purpose:

the digestive/urinary tract end up (ph. v) – to reach a particular place or achieve a situation after other activities:

She'll end up penniless if she continues to spend like that.

trigger (v.) – to cause something to start:

Some people find that certain foods trigger their headaches.

knock out (ph. v) – to remove something

Red fire ants with painful bites have taken hold in Europe

nest (n.) – a structure built by birds or insects to leave their eggs in to develop a wasps'/hornets' nest

invasive – an invasive organism is one that has arrived in a place from somewhere else and has a harmful effect on that place

The Asian long-horned beetle is one of the newest and most harmful invasive species in the United States.

pose (v.) – to cause something, especially a problem or difficulty:
Nuclear weapons pose a threat to everyone.

prey on (ph. v) – if an animal preys on another animal, it catches and eats it:
The spider preys on small flies and other insects.

displace (v.) – to force something or someone out of its usual or original place:
A major government offensive against rebel groups threatens to displace large numbers of people.

eradication (n) – the process of getting rid of something completely or of destroying something bad:
The organization's goal is the eradication of poverty.