

Solo – done alone without assistance or company.

She completed the marathon solo, without any support crew.

Icy – covered with or consisting of ice; very cold.

The road was icy and slippery after the storm.

Emission – the act of releasing something, particularly gases or energy, into the environment.

Car emissions contribute significantly to air pollution.

Attempt – an effort to achieve or complete something difficult.

He made an attempt to solve the puzzle before the timer ran out.

Pole – either of the two points at the extreme north or south of the Earth's axis.

The explorers reached the South Pole after weeks of travel.

Amphibious – capable of functioning or living both on land and in water.

The army deployed amphibious vehicles to cross the river.

Morph – to gradually change or transform into something different.

The caterpillar morphed into a butterfly over time.

Anecdotal experience – personal accounts or observations rather than scientific evidence.

Her anecdotal experience suggests the product works, but it hasn't been tested thoroughly.

Bear out – to confirm or support the truth of something.

His findings bear out the theory that exercise improves mental health.

Extent – the degree or range to which something exists or happens.

The extent of the damage after the storm was unprecedented.

Trigger – to cause something to happen or start.

The loud noise triggered an alarm in the building.

Far-reaching – having a wide or significant influence or effect.

The new law has far-reaching consequences for the economy.

Uncharted – not explored or mapped; unknown.

The sailors ventured into uncharted waters to discover new islands.

Barrier – an obstacle or challenge that prevents progress.

The language barrier made communication difficult between the two groups.

Commercial – related to business or trade.

The commercial success of the product surprised everyone.

Recede – to move back or withdraw; to diminish.

As the floodwaters recede, residents begin to assess the damage.

Marine – related to the sea or ocean.

The marine ecosystem is home to a diverse range of species.

Oft-cited – frequently mentioned or referred to.

He used an oft-cited quote to support his argument in the essay.

Find mates – to locate and pair with a partner for reproduction.

Birds use unique calls to find mates during the breeding season.

Policy makers – individuals responsible for creating rules or laws in governance.

Policy makers must address the issue of rising inflation promptly.

Advocate for – to publicly support or recommend something.

She advocates for better access to education in rural areas.

Measures – actions or steps taken to achieve a specific goal.

The government introduced new measures to reduce unemployment.