

1. aptly - fittingly or suitably. The whale was aptly named Frodo.
(adverb)
2. dwindling - gradually decreasing in size or amount. The ant population is dwindling.
(verb)
3. display - to show or exhibit. Ants display extraordinary skills.
(verb)
4. remarkable - extraordinary or impressive. Ants have remarkable navigational skills.
(adjective)
5. strategy - a plan of action. Ants use a unique navigation strategy.
(noun)
6. guide - to lead or show the way. Pheromones guide ants back to the nest.
(verb)
7. characteristic - a typical feature or quality. Ants have unique navigational characteristics.
(noun)
8. exhibit - to show a trait or behavior. Ants exhibit idiosyncratic routes.
(verb)
9. cluttered - messy or full of objects. Ants navigate through cluttered undergrowth.
(adjective)
10. rely - to depend on. Ants rely on visual cues.
(verb)
11. visual - related to seeing. Ants use visual memories to navigate.
(adjective)
12. terrain - a type of land or ground. Desert ants navigate the harsh terrain.
(noun)
13. constructs - builds or forms. Ants construct mounds to help navigate.
(verb)
14. celestial - related to the sky or space. Ants use celestial cues to find their way.
(adjective)
15. calculate - to determine or figure out. Ants calculate their position to the nest.
(verb)
16. decreasing - becoming smaller or fewer. Insect numbers are decreasing each year.
(verb)
17. conservation - protection of nature or animals. Some animals benefit from conservation strategies.
(noun)
18. vital - essential or very important. Insects are vital to our ecosystem.
(adjective)
19. neural - related to the nerves or nervous system. Ants have basic neural circuits.

- (adjective)
20. individualistic - unique to an individual. Ants have individualistic behaviors.
- (adjective)
21. originating - beginning or coming from. Their behavior originates from basic neural circuits.
- (verb)
22. navigate - to find a way or direction. Ants navigate using the Milky Way.
- (verb)
23. accuracy - being precise or exact. Ants show remarkable navigational accuracy.
- (noun)
24. predators - animals that hunt other animals. Ants are crop pest predators.
- (noun)
25. jeopardy - danger or risk. Insect biodiversity is in jeopardy.
- (noun)